FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER - YEAR B

READINGS

First Reading:

Acts 4:8-12

Filled with the Holy Spirit, Peter said: 'Rulers of the people, and elders! If you are questioning us today about an act of kindness to a cripple, and asking us how he was healed, then I am glad to tell you all, and would indeed be glad to tell the whole people of Israel, that it was by the name of Jesus Christ the Nazarene, the one you crucified, whom God raised from the dead, by this name and by no other that this man is able to stand up perfectly healthy, here in your presence today. This is the stone rejected by you the builders, but which has proved to be the keystone. For of all the names in the world given to men, this is the only one by which we can be saved.'

Antiphon to the Psalm:

Psalm 117(118):1,8-9,21-23,26,28-29

The stone rejected by the builders has become the cornerstone.

Second Reading:

1 John 3:1-2

Think of the love that the Father has lavished on us, by letting us be called God's children; and that is what we are. Because the world refused to acknowledge him, therefore it does not acknowledge us. My dear people, we are already the children of God but what we are to be in the future has not yet been revealed; all we know is, that when it is revealed we shall be like him because we shall see him as he really is.

Gospel Acclamation

John 10:14

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the good shepherd, says the Lord;
I know my sheep, and mine know me.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

John 10:11-18

Jesus said:

'I am the good shepherd:
the good shepherd is one who lays down his life for his sheep.
The hired man, since he is not the shepherd
and the sheep do not belong to him,
abandons the sheep and runs away
as soon as he sees a wolf coming,
and then the wolf attacks and scatters the sheep;
this is because he is only a hired man
and has no concern for the sheep.

'I am the good shepherd;
I know my own
and my own know me,
just as the Father knows me
and I know the Father;
and I lay down my life for my sheep.
And there are other sheep I have
that are not of this fold,
and these I have to lead as well.
They too will listen to my voice,
and there will be only one flock,
and one shepherd.

'The Father loves me,
because I lay down my life
in order to take it up again.
No one takes it from me;
I lay it down of my own free will,
and as it is in my power to lay it down,
so it is in my power to take it up again;
and this is the command I have been given by my Father.'

ST JOHN BOSCO COLLEGE

Welcome to Term Two in our Tenth Year at St John Bosco College. We look forward to the many exciting events with our Pre-Kindergarten to Year 11 students at the College this term. Our 2024 Calendar is available at:

<https://www.stjohnbosco.wa.edu.au/calendar/>

This weekend marks an exciting chapter in the history of St Francis Xavier Parish, with the Ordination of Deacon Errol to the Priesthood on Friday, at St Mary's Cathedral. We are excited that Father Errol will celebrate Thanksgiving Masses at St Francis Xavier Church this weekend and will also celebrate a Mass at St John Bosco College later in the year.

Twenty-nine of our Year 10 and Year 11 students and five staff attended our inaugural Bosco Melbourne Arts Tour from April 7-13. We were delighted that students were able to attend this joyful cultural experience, that has given them some lifelong learnings. A huge thank you to our Bosco Team for organising the tour, that had so many joyful memories for all those in attendance.

Interviews are now taking place for Kindergarten in 2025. We are accepting enrolments for Kindergarten for 2026, as well as Year 7 to Year 12 for 2025. Further details can be obtained from our Dean of Community and Engagement, Mrs Maggie Burton on 92349600/admin@stjohnbosco.wa.edu.au
