08/09 JUNE 2024

10TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - YEAR B

READINGS

First Reading:

Genesis 3:9-15

The Lord God called to the man after he had eaten of the tree. 'Where are you?' he asked. 'I heard the sound of you in the garden;' he replied 'I was afraid because I was naked, so I hid.' 'Who told you that you were naked?' he asked 'Have you been eating of the tree I forbade you to eat?' The man replied, 'It was the woman you put with me; she gave me the fruit, and I ate it.' Then the Lord God asked the woman, 'What is this you have done?' The woman replied, 'The serpent tempted me and I ate.'

Then the Lord God said to the serpent, 'Because you have done this, 'Be accursed beyond all cattle, all wild beasts.

You shall crawl on your belly and eat dust every day of your life.

I will make you enemies of each other:

you and the woman,
your offspring and her offspring.
It will crush your head
and you will strike its heel.'

Antiphon to the Psalm:

Psalm 129(130)

With the Lord there is mercy, and fullness of redemption.

Second Reading:

2 Corinthians 4:13-5:1

As we have the same spirit of faith that is mentioned in scripture – I believed, and therefore I spoke – we too believe and therefore we too speak, knowing that he who raised the Lord Jesus to life will raise us with Jesus in our turn, and put us by his side and you with us. You see, all this is for your benefit, so that the more grace is multiplied among people, the more thanksgiving there will be, to the glory of God.

That is why there is no weakening on our part, and instead, though this outer man of ours may be falling into decay, the inner man is renewed day by day. Yes, the troubles which are soon over, though they weigh little, train us for the carrying of a weight of eternal glory which is out of all proportion to them. And so we have no eyes for things that are visible, but only for things that are invisible; for visible things last only for a time, and the invisible things are eternal.

For we know that when the tent that we live in on earth is folded up, there is a house built by God for us, an everlasting home not made by human hands, in the heavens.

Gospel Acclamation

John 12:31,32

Alleluia, alleluia!

The prince of this world will now be cast out, and when I am lifted up from the earth I will draw all to myself, says the Lord.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Mark 3:20-35

Jesus went home with his disciples, and such a crowd collected that they could not even have a meal. When his relatives heard of this, they set out to take charge of him, convinced he was out of his mind.

The scribes who had come down from Jerusalem were saying, 'Beelzebul is in him' and, 'It is through the prince of devils that he casts devils out.' So he called them to him and spoke to them in parables, 'How can Satan cast out Satan? If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot last. And if a household is divided against itself, that household can never stand. Now if Satan has rebelled against himself and is divided, he cannot stand either – it is the end of him. But no one can make his way into a strong man's house and burgle his property unless he has tied up the strong man first. Only then can he burgle his house.

'I tell you solemnly, all men's sins will be forgiven, and all their blasphemies; but let anyone blaspheme against the Holy Spirit and he will never have forgiveness: he is guilty of an eternal sin.' This was because they were saying, 'An unclean spirit is in him.'

His mother and brothers now arrived and, standing outside, sent in a message asking for him. A crowd was sitting round him at the time the message was passed to him, 'Your mother and brothers and sisters are outside asking for you.' He replied, 'Who are my mother and my brothers?' And looking round at those sitting in a circle about him, he said, 'Here are my mother and my brothers. Anyone who does the will of God, that person is my brother and sister and mother.'

LUMEN CHRISTI COLLEGE

Term Two at Lumen Christi College has been full of exciting learning activities and events, with students recently participating in an excursion to see Elvis The Musical, a Waterwise incursion, Reconciliation Week activities and the Year 7 GEM Day incursion.

Students and staff also recently celebrated the College's 40th birthday with our annual Lumen Day festivities. Each year, we gather to mark the College's birthday and celebrate life at Lumen, while also raising funds for the various charitable organisations that the College supports. This year, all proceeds from the day will go to LifeLink and St Vincent de Paul. In the morning, Fr Errol and Deacon Patrick joined us to celebrate the Eucharist at our whole school Mass. Across the remainder of the day, students had the opportunity to watch the Teachers compete against the Year 12 students in the Principal's Cup soccer match, run and support the Homeroom stalls with great foods and games on offer, and support their peers at the annual Talent Show. It was a wonderful day full of school spirit.

I would like to remind you that enrolments for Year 7 2026 entry are now open. To enrol, please visit <https://www.lumen.wa.edu.au/enrolments/enrol-at-lumen> or phone 9394 9300 for more information. Limited enrolments remain for Year 7 2025 entry.
