22/23 JUNE 2024

12TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - YEAR B

READINGS

First Reading:

Job 38:1,8-11

From the heart of the tempest the Lord gave Job his answer. He said:
Who pent up the sea behind closed doors
when it leapt tumultuous out of the womb,
when I wrapped it in a robe of mist
and made black clouds its swaddling bands;
when I marked the bounds it was not to cross
and made it fast with a bolted gate?
Come thus far, I said, and no farther:
here your proud waves shall break.

Antiphon to the Psalm:

Psalm 106(107):23-26,28-32

Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting.

Second Reading:

2 Corinthians 5:14-17

The love of Christ overwhelms us when we reflect that if one man has died for all, then all men should be dead; and the reason he died for all was so that living men should live no longer for themselves, but for him who died and was raised to life for them. From now onwards, therefore, we do not judge anyone by the standards of the flesh. Even if we did once know Christ in the flesh, that is not how we know him now. And for anyone who is in Christ, there is a new creation; the old creation has gone, and now the new one is here.

For Christ's love compels us, because we are convinced that one died for all, and therefore all died. And he died for all, that those who live should no longer live for themselves but for him who died for them and was raised again.

2 Corinthians 5:14-15

Gospel Acclamation

Luke 7:16

Alleluia, alleluia!

A great prophet has appeared among us;
God has visited his people.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Mark 4:35-41

With the coming of evening, Jesus said to his disciples, 'Let us cross over to the other side.' And leaving the crowd behind they took him, just as he was, in the boat; and there were other boats with him. Then it began to blow a gale and the waves were breaking into the boat so that it was almost swamped. But he was in the stern, his head on the cushion, asleep. They woke him and said to him, 'Master, do you not care? We are going down!' And he woke up and rebuked the wind and said to the sea, 'Quiet now! Be calm!' And the wind dropped, and all was calm again. Then he said to them, 'Why are you so frightened? How is it that you have no faith?' They were filled with awe and said to one another, 'Who can this be? Even the wind and the sea obey him.'

SALVADO CATHOLIC COLLEGE

On Tuesday afternoon, a significant number of Year 10 students and some Year 9 girls represented Salvado against St John Bosco College in Netball and Soccer. The students represented us in a fabulous fashion, and it was wonderful to have several parents in attendance to watch their children participate. The Salvado boys won the soccer 5-3 and our girls started their netball game on fire. After leading the first quarter by four goals, they eventually were defeated by 5, with St John Bosco winning 21-16.

A highlight from the netball game came at half time, when two Salvado girls invited their opponents - who gladly accepted - to enjoy some of their watermelon, oranges and lollies. Their kindness was a lovely gesture - we do not think we have ever seen opponents come together to share food halfway through a game before. We look forward to hosting St John Bosco in Term Three for our home round.

We are accepting enrolments for Pre-Kindergarten for 2024, Kindergarten for 2025 and 2026, as well as Year 7 to Year 10 for 2024, and Year 7 to Year 11 for 2025. Further details can be obtained from the College Enrolments Officer, Mrs Kasey Atwell on 9526 4500 or enrolments@salvado.wa.edu.au. For enrolment information and fee schedules please visit our College website at: <https://www.salvado.wa.edu.au/enrol>.

Peace and Goodness to all.
