13/14 JULY 2024

15TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - YEAR B

READINGS:

First Reading:

Amos 7:12-15

Amaziah, the priest of Bethel, said to Amos, 'Go away, seer; get back to the land of Judah; earn your bread there, do your prophesying there. We want no more prophesying in Bethel; this is the royal sanctuary, the national temple.' 'I was no prophet, neither did I belong to any of the brotherhoods of prophets,' Amos replied to Amaziah 'I was a shepherd, and looked after sycamores: but it was the Lord who took me from herding the flock, and the Lord who said, "Go, prophesy to my people Israel."'

Antiphon to the Psalm:

Psalm 84(85):9-14

Lord, show us your mercy and love, and grant us your salvation.

Second Reading:

Ephesians 1:3-14

Blessed be God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with all the spiritual blessings of heaven in Christ. Before the world was made, he chose us, chose us in Christ, to be holy and spotless, and to live through love in his presence, determining that we should become his adopted sons, through Jesus Christ for his own kind purposes, to make us praise the glory of his grace, his free gift to us in the Beloved, in whom, through his blood, we gain our freedom, the forgiveness of our sins. Such is the richness of the grace which he has showered on us in all wisdom and insight. He has let us know the mystery of his purpose, the hidden plan he so kindly made in Christ from the beginning to act upon when the times had run their course to the end: that he would bring everything together under Christ, as head, everything in the heavens and everything on earth. And it is in him that we were claimed as God's own, chosen from the beginning, under the predetermined plan of the one who guides all things as he decides by his own will; chosen to be, for his greater glory, the people who would put their hopes in Christ before he came. Now you too, in him, have heard the message of the truth and the good news of your salvation, and have believed it; and you too have been stamped with the seal of the Holy Spirit of the Promise, the pledge of our inheritance which brings freedom for those whom God has taken for his own, to make his glory praised.

Gospel Acclamation

Ephesians 1:17-18

Alleluia, alleluia!

May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our heart that we might see how great is the hope to which we are called.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Mark 6:7-13

Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out in pairs giving them authority over the unclean spirits. And he instructed them to take nothing for the journey except a staff – no bread, no haversack, no coppers for their purses. They were to wear sandals but, he added, ‘Do not take a spare tunic.’ And he said to them, ‘If you enter a house anywhere, stay there until you leave the district. And if any place does not welcome you and people refuse to listen to you, as you walk away shake off the dust from under your feet as a sign to them.’

So they set off to preach repentance; and they cast out many devils, and anointed many sick people with oil and cured them.

Welcoming Children in Church

Dear parents of our young parishioners, our parish warmly welcomes your growing family at our celebration of Holy Mass.

May we suggest:

- Relax: God put the wiggle in children: don't feel like you have to suppress it in God's house. Father won't be distracted by a bit of extra noise!
- Sit close: You may wish to sit towards the front or by an aisle where it's easier for little ones to see and hear.
- Explain: Feel free to quietly explain the different parts of the Mass.
- Participate: Sing the hymns, pray the prayers, say the responses, etc. - children often learn by copying your actions.
- Kid's bulletin: Special bulletins with children's activities are available in the foyer.
- Family room: You are welcome to sit in the family room, but there is no expectation that you have to.
- Stepping outside: If you feel you need to pop out for a few minutes feel free, but please come back!

Note to all parishioners: The presence of children is a gift to the Church, for they are our future. Our parish is blessed with many young families - please make them welcome!

"Jesus said, 'Do not stop the little children from coming to me, for it is to such as these that the Kingdom of Heaven belongs.'" (Matt 19:14)
